

made to our planet, and the real risks climate change has for all of us. It is important to encourage the Leeds Diocese to follow in the footsteps of other dioceses in tackling these issues.

Parish members of the Church of the Good Shepherd in Mytholmroyd have set up a 'Laudato Si' group and held a fact-finding Keen to learn more, our group met the Diocese's Head of Environment, Dr Emma Gardner, who explained the importance of the Salford Laudato Si Centre and its wider work in developing a climate change plan for the Diocese.

The Diocese seeks to be zero carbon by 2038.

